WILL MEET HERE FOR THIRD TIME

American Civic Association Votes to Convene in National Capital.

THIS SESSION TO MARK ITS TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Will Be Held at New Willard Hotel December 2 to 4-Elaborate Program of Papers and Discussions.

Washington has been selected for the ic Association following a referendum on that referendum by the executive choice for the convention developed the many cordial expressions in favor of Washington as the quite regular place of meeting, due to its convenient access, to the attractions here of a national character and the facilities for holding successful business and social The conventions.

The convention this year will be the tenth anniversary of the American Civic Association, which was formed in June, 1904, at St. Louis, by the consolidation of two then existing organizations known as the American Park and Outdoor Art Association and the American League for Civic Improvement. During those ten years the American Civic Association wielded a wide influence in arousing and assist-

Its notable effort along these lines has been for the preservation of the beauties of Niagara Falls, which was undertaken following its convention held in Cleveland in 1965.

Another undertaking of the associa-tion distinctly national in character has been a movement for the creation of a federal bureau of national parks, or in terms of the bill which proposes this bureau, "a national parks serv-ice," making possible a larger admin-istration of the great national areas set aside for the recreation of all the people.

set aside for the recreation of all the people.

Particular importance will be given to the session devoted to national parks at the forthcoming convention, because of the greatly increased travel to all American points of interest that is sure to follow the unsettled state of affairs in European countries.

Session Devoted to Federal City. Another session that will be of particular interest to the people of Wash-ington will be that devoted to "the federal city." The first eveening sescapital city. It has always been the policy of the American Civic Association at all of its conventions to have to Washington and setting forth its needs as a capital city, and the ambitions of those most intimately associaed with it for its development along lines that will eventually make it

NORRIS RESOLUTION VOTE IS SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY

Return of Republicans Awaited Before Balloting on Probe of Illinois and Pennsylvania Primaries.

The Senate privileges and election mittee has agreed to vote Friday on the Norris resolution calling for an investigation of the recent senatorial primaries in Pennsylvania and Illinois. Indications were today that an investigation will be recommended by the committee to the Senate. The vote on the resolution was postponed, it was said, in order to give the absent members of the committee Senators Dillingham, Sutherland, Kenyon and Fall, all republicans—an opportunity to be

The Norris resolution is directed

The Norris resolution is directed especially at Senator Penrose, the republican nominee in Pennsylvania, and Roger Sullivan, the democratic nominee in Illinois. It is charged that large sums of money were expended illegally in their campaigns. Raymond Robins, a progressive, will receive the support of the National Popular Government League in the senatorial election in Illinois, it was announced here today. Senator Owen of Oklahoma, democrat, is president of the league, and Senator Norris of Nebraska, republican, is secretary. In a statement the officers of the league announced that they could not give their suport either to Sullivan, the democratic nominee, or to Senator Sherman, the republican nominee.
